Ref. No. RSCS/2026-01

Date: July 07, 2026

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Russian Society of Colorectal Surgeons, we are honored to invite representatives and members of your Society to participate in the XVI International Conference “Russian School of Colorectal Surgery – 2026,” which will be held in Moscow, Russian Federation, on September 4–6, 2026.

The Russian School of Colorectal Surgery is an important international platform for academic exchange, discussion of innovative approaches in colorectal surgery, and demonstration of advanced surgical techniques. Each year, the School brings together leading colorectal specialists from around the world to share their expertise and experience.

This year, the motto of the conference is: “Medicine Without Borders, Friendship Without Distance.” This motto reflects our commitment to strengthening professional dialogue, international cooperation, and friendship among medical specialists across countries.

We would be very grateful if you could kindly share this invitation with the members of your Society and inform colorectal surgeons and other interested specialists about the opportunity to participate in the conference.

Participation in the conference is free of charge for international attendees. Registration is available via the following link:

Within the framework of the conference, we would also like to further strengthen international professional collaboration in the field of colorectal surgery and promote academic, scientific, educational, and clinical cooperation among colorectal surgeons, professional societies, academic institutions, and hospitals from different countries.

We would also like to invite members of your Society, including young surgeons, researchers, residents, and other interested specialists, to participate in the Scientific Paper Competition held within the framework of the conference. Please note that the submission deadline has been extended. Detailed information about the competition and submission requirements is available here: <https://conf.siterscs.com/en/scientific.html>

We would be deeply honored to welcome representatives and members of your Society to the XVI International Conference “Russian School of Colorectal Surgery – 2026.” Their participation would be highly valuable for the development of professional dialogue and long-term cooperation among colorectal surgeons from different countries.

We would be grateful if you could kindly confirm your interest in participating in the conference and sharing this information with your Society members.

We sincerely hope to welcome you and your colleagues in Moscow this September.

Yours sincerely,

Professor P.V. Tsarkov

President of the Russian Society of Colorectal Surgeons
